

Public Affairs & Policy Management Students' Society

CONSTITUTION OF THE PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND POLICY MANAGEMENT STUDENTS' SOCIETY

Preamble

We, the students of the Bachelor of Public Affairs and Policy Management, do hereby establish this constitution of the Public Affairs and Policy Management Students' Society.

Article I – The Organization

1. The organization shall be known as the Public Affairs and Policy Management Students' Society, and hereafter shall be referred to as the "Society" or "PAPMSS".
2. The Society shall operate as a not-for-profit organization.

Article II – Purpose

1. The Society shall foster community within the Arthur Kroeger College of Public Affairs.
2. The Society shall facilitate the interaction of its membership with leaders in public affairs and engage them in the hands-on application of their learning.
3. The Society shall provide opportunities for its membership to contribute to their community.
4. The Society shall, to the best of its means, seek to promote the Arthur Kroeger College of Public Affairs and the Bachelor of Public Affairs and Policy Management, especially to prospective students.

Article III – Membership and Structure

1. All students enrolled in the Bachelor of Public Affairs and Policy Management shall be considered to be Members of the Society. Any students outside the program may gain PAPMSS membership upon paying a membership fee of $5.
2. Members shall have the right to:

- a. Access all meeting minutes on the PPMSS website and be informed of elections of the Society and the results thereof;
 - b. Request entry to all PPMSS meetings and speak at society meetings and speak on any issue;
 - c. Vote in all elections for which they are entitled to vote (as determined by year standing);
 - d. Partake in any events of the Society;
 - e. Invite non-member guests to any PPMSS event; The Society reserves the right to give preference to Society Members for limited-seating events.
3. The Executive shall be the administrative body of the Society, elected by and composed of members of the Society, consisting of the:
- a. President – Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. The overall leadership of the Society;
 - II. Coordination of executive duties;
 - III. Calling and chairing of meetings;
 - IV. Liaising with external partners;
 - V. Acting as the official voice of the Society.
 - b. Vice President (Policy and Academic) – Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. Facilitating interaction between Society members and leaders in public affairs;
 - II. Helping foster the conditions for and promoting student achievement and academic success;
 - III. Where possible, facilitating experiential learning opportunities in the Carleton academic community for all BPAPM students;
 - IV. Ensuring the Society’s Constitution remains current;
 - V. Representing Arthur Kroeger College students on the Carleton Academic Student Government (CASG).
 - c. Vice President (Social) – Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. Organizing social events and spirit campaigns for members;
 - II. Establishing, chairing, and calling meetings for a committee of BPAPM students to support the Vice President (Social);
 - III. With the support of a committee, organizing an end-of-year event for the BPAPM community, unless impossible due to broader health, environment or political conditions;
 - IV. Organizing, managing and representing the PPMSS executive in the social committee for the PPMSS gala;
 - V. Working with the Vice President (Finance) to promote the sales of College branded clothing and accessories.

- d. Vice President (Community Outreach) – Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. Providing outreach opportunities that enable members to further contribute to their communities;
 - II. Working with the President to maintain a strong relationship with Arthur Kroeger College and Faculty of Public Affairs staff;
 - III. Where possible, facilitating service-learning opportunities, as well as advertising relevant job postings and networking opportunities for all BPAPM students.
 - 1. Service-learning opportunities shall be interpreted to include any opportunity that involves active participation in thoughtfully-organized service that addresses community needs.

- e. Vice President (Communications) – Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. Promoting the Society’s initiatives to its membership;
 - II. Informing the membership of upcoming meetings, events and elections, and the results thereof;
 - III. Maintaining the Society’s Internet presence;
 - IV. External communications.

- f. Vice President (Finance) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO)– Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. Presenting draft budgets to the Executive;
 - II. Managing Society funds;
 - III. Seeking out sources of funding;
 - IV. Keeping records of Executive meetings;
 - V. Working with the Vice President (Social) to promote the sales of College branded clothing and accessories.

- g. First Year Representative and Second Year Representative – Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. Communicating and promoting college and PPMSS initiatives to their peers;
 - II. Acting as a bridge between the Society’s Executive and membership, and vice versa;
 - III. Assisting in the implementation of any of the Society’s programs or services.

- h. Equity Officer – Responsible for, but not limited to:
 - I. Planning, managing, and advising the Executive on diversity and equity matters;
 - II. Supervising the Executive and responding to equity issues raised internal or external to the Executive;
 - III. Providing information (as needed) to PPM students regarding Carleton Service Centres and EDI resources;

- IV. Hosting and chairing Equity Forums to advise and inform any equity related initiatives to the Executive.
 - 1. The Equity Forum will be open to all members of the Society to participate;
 - 2. The Equity Forum will serve as an open forum for members of the Society to assess, recommend, and participate in initiatives promoting equity, diversity, and inclusion.
 - V. Coordinating training to promote a climate of equity, respect and inclusion, through workshops and similar initiatives, including but not limited to:
 - 1. Sexual Violence Prevention and Support Training,
 - 2. Anti-Oppression Training,
 - 3. Safe(r) Space Training,
 - 4. AODA Accessibility Training.
4. The Vice President (Finance) shall serve as Acting President in the President's absence or should the position of President become vacant. By the 30th day of vacancy, an election for the role of President must be called.
 5. The Equity Officer will be chosen through an application and interview process run by the previous EO, an elected PAMSS member and a faculty member during the period of the Executive elections, to serve in the following academic year.
 - a. Should the Equity Officer express intention to serve a consecutive term, the Equity Officer's position on the hiring committee shall be filled by another member of the sitting executive.
 6. The Chair must call an emergency meeting within seventy-two (72) hours of receiving a request for meeting by at least three (3) executive members.
 7. An executive member shall be entitled to take leave from their role, in consultation with the President, for a period of no more than two (2) months for care of personal health.
 - a. The President may delegate the duties associated with the executive member on leave by other executive members, with their consent, until the executive member returns from leave.

Article IV – Elections and Impeachment

1. The Executive shall be elected for a term of one year. The term of office, and all duties associated with it, shall be from May 1 until April 30 of the following year.
 - a. The President and Vice President (Finance) are permitted to retain signing authority only until the first day of the Carleton Fall Semester or the first available opportunity to transfer such duties to the newly elected President and Vice President (Finance).

2. Regular elections for all positions, save for First Year Representative and Second Year Representative, will take place during March. The term of office shall take effect on May 1.
 - a. Following regular PPMSS elections, elections for First Year Representative and Second Year Representative shall be held. The term of office shall be from the date of the election to April 30 of the following year.
3. Elections for the Year Representatives shall take place sometime in the first six weeks of the Fall semester and no later than October 7.
4. Should a position remain vacant following the March elections, it will be filled at the time of the election for First Year Representative and Second Year Representative in the Fall semester.
5. Should a position remain vacant following the Fall semester elections, or in the event that there are no candidates: those positions shall be declared vacant, and the President may:
 - a. delegate the duties associated with that vacant position to other executive members, with their consent, until a byelection fills the position; or,
 - b. appoint a Member of the Executive to fill that vacant position with the unanimous consent of the Executive until a byelection fills the position.
6. Should a position become vacant during the year, a by-election shall be held within two (2) weeks to fill the vacancy. The term of office shall be from the date of election to the next April 30.
7. Elections shall proceed as follows:
 - a. Members may nominate any Member for any Executive position, save for Year Representatives, who must hold standing in the year they represent during their term of office;
 - b. Each nomination must be seconded by two other Members;
 - c. The nomination period shall be no longer than one week;
 - d. Where there is one nominee for the position, the candidate shall be subject to a vote of confidence;
 - e. Following the close of nominations there shall be a one-week campaign period for those positions with certified nominees.
8. An election shall be held, at minimum, one week following the close of nominations using a ranked-choice ballot system.

9. No Executive member seeking re-election shall be involved with the administration of the aforementioned election process.
10. Students are to run independently or in pairs for all positions except President, Vice President (Finance) and Year Representatives.
 - a. President, Vice President (Finance), and year representatives must run independently.
11. There shall be no groups of candidates (“slates”) running as a group, but candidates are able to positively endorse each other.
12. The position of the Chief Electoral Officer will be occupied by a student either not in BPAPM or a student in their final year of the BPAPM program, chosen by an administrator following a submitted application prior to the period of the March and September Executive elections. The CEO will serve in the role starting 3 weeks prior to the election, with their term ending one week after the election. The VP Policy and Academic will facilitate the CEO application process.
13. Removal of an Executive
 - a. Any Executive Member is removed from office automatically when that Executive Member:
 - i. Is no longer a Member of the Society;
 - ii. Misses three consecutive meetings of the Executive, unless the remainder of the Executive excuses the absences by a two-thirds majority;
 - b. An Executive member may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote of the Executive on a motion in favour of their removal from office if they are deemed to not be fulfilling assigned duties in a satisfactory manner or that they are deemed to be in contravention of the Purpose of the Society.
 - i. To initiate the Impeachment process, an executive member must raise concerns about the executive member of concern to any PPMSS executive. There must be demonstrable proof to warrant Impeachment in the form of a letter. Grounds for impeachment include but are not limited to misconduct and non-attendance.
 - ii. The President, Vice-President of Finance or Equity Officer will meet with the executive member of concern and any other relevant parties. If the President is the member of concern, the VP Finance will meet with the President and any other relevant parties. If it concerns both the VP Finance and President, the Equity Officer will meet with all other relevant parties.
 - iii. Should the VP Finance, Equity Officer and President be members of concern, an advisory member of Arthur Kroeger College will conduct the investigation and impeachment process.

- iv. The President, Vice-President of Finance or Equity Officer will then convene an Executive meeting to debate and decide on the motion to remove. The member of concern must be present at this meeting. If the member of concern is the President, the VP Finance will convene the Executive meeting. If the member of concern is the President and the VP Finance, the Equity Officer will convene the Executive meeting. If the VP Finance, President and Equity Officer are all members of concern, the executive must implement all the recommendations from the Arthur Kroeger College advisor who conducted the investigation and impeachment process.
- v. All need-to-know information about the impeachment must be published in a statement to the PAPM community by the Vice President of Communications.

14. Every member of the Executive must reside in the National Capital Region and complete a study term at Carleton University (i.e., not study abroad or in another city) or a coop work term in the National Capital Region each academic term of their year in office, excluding the Summer term (May 1 – August 31).

Article V – Meetings

- 1. Quorum for meetings shall be half of the executive plus one member (50% +1).
- 2. Meetings shall be held at the discretion of the President.
- 3. A motion shall be considered passed at a meeting if it receives the support of one half of members present.
- 4. The Society adopts “Roberts Rules of Order” as its Rules of Order.
- 5. If members are unable to attend a meeting, they should notify the President.

Article VI – Advisor

- 1. The Director of the Arthur Kroeger College of Public Affairs shall be the advisor to this Society.

Article VII – Method to Amend the Constitution

- 1. The constitution shall be subject to review, in its entirety at executive meetings during the year. The constitution shall be reviewed at minimum annually.
- 2. Any proposals to amend the Constitution must be publicly announced to the Members of the Society no less than seven (7) days before the Executive votes to approve them. If students would like to challenge the amendments, the details of the meeting where the amendments will be voted on will be shared.

3. Approval by two-thirds of the Executive will pass the proposed amendment. The amendment is immediately effective unless otherwise stipulated in the proposal.
 - a. Executives elected in pairs as outlined In Article IV Section 11 must vote in consensus with their partner and represent one (1) vote in approving matter pertaining to Article VII.
 - b. If no consensus is reached between the members of a paired position, then their vote shall be considered as an abstention and omitted from the final vote count in approving constitutional amendments.

Article VIII – Dissolution of the Society

1. On dissolution of the Society all assets shall be given to the Arthur Kroeger College of Public Affairs. Any assets belonging to CUSA will be returned to CUSA.
